WHY YOU NEED AN ESTATE PLAN

Many people assume that their estate is too small to engage in estate planning. Others assume that estate planning is not important.

Delaying preparation of an estate plan may result in conflict, confusion, unnecessary costs, and disaccord among family members.

Benefits of Estate Planning

Ensuring that your assets are distributed based on your intentions.

Creating perpetual charitable giving even after your death.

Controlling assets while you are alive but incapacitated.

Controlling assets after death.

Minimizing the emotional and financial burden on your heirs.

Curtailing feuding among your heirs over your estate.

Certainty and peace of mind.

Avoiding the probate process.

Naming guardians for minor children.

Wealth transfer to care for children after your death.
